

Sanibel and Captiva Islands – Short Introduction

The lush and tropical islands of Sanibel and Captiva located in Southwest Florida are the true paradise location you have always dreamed of visiting. Sanibel and Captiva islands are the perfect choice for a getaway vacation, romantic stay, family trip, nature retreat, or just the place you want to call home.

Enjoy Sanibel & Captiva's 15 miles of unspoiled beaches, 25 miles of bike paths, 50 species of fish, 230 types of birds, 250 types of shells and 0 stop lights. We have many different attractions, such as the "Ding" Darling Wildlife Refuge, C.R.O.W. (Clinic for the Rehabilitation of Wildlife), Bailey Matthews National Shell Museum, SCCF (Sanibel Captiva Conservation Foundation) and the nature preserve. Outdoor activities include fishing, shelling, biking, bird watching, boating, golfing and snorkeling... to name just a few.

Sanibel Island measures roughly 12 miles long and three miles across at its widest point. Captiva Island has more compact measurements of approximately five miles long and half a mile wide. The feature that sets Sanibel and Captiva apart is the one that everyone looks for and is the hardest to find: the relaxation that comes from perfect tranquility.
